26. The Board has the ultimate responsibility for ensuring that all Defendants comply with this Order.

- c. require timely reporting by management to the Board and each Defendant's Chief Executive Officer on the status of compliance with Defendants' obligations under this Order.

IV. Monetary Provisions

A. Order to Pay Redress

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

31. Defendants must relinquish all dominion, control, and title to all redress amounts sent to and accepted by Affected Borrowers to the fullest extent permitted by law, and Defendants have no right to reclaim funds paid under this Order.

32. Defendants must provide all relief to Affected Borrowers required by this Order. Defendants will ensure that the Redress Account is maintained, and that all valid claims for redress are honored, regardless of any corporate transaction, change in corporate form, or asset sale that might otherwise affect the Redress Account, including specifically requiring any successor entity to maintain the Redress Account and continue to honor valid claims for redress. Prior to the termination of this Order, Defendants must pay to the Bureau, by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent, and according to the Bureau's wiring instructions, the balance of the Redress Account, at which point Defendants will not be responsible for honoring outstanding redress claims. The Bureau may use these remaining funds to pay additional redress to Affected Borrowers. If the Bureau determines, in its sole discretion, that additional redress is wholly or partially impracticable or otherwise inappropriate, or if funds remain after the additional redress is completed, the Bureau will deposit any remaining funds in the U.S. Treasury. Defendants will have no right to challenge any actions that the Bureau or its representatives may take under this paragraph.

33. Conditioned on the entry of this Order as proposed by the Parties, the Bureau has provided non-objection to a comprehensive written plan for providing redress consistent with this Order (the "Redress Plan"). 35. In the event of any default on Defendants' obligations to make payment under this Order, interest, computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on any outstanding amounts not paid from the date of default to the date of payment, and will immediately become due and payable.

36. The facts alleged in the Second Amended Complaint will be taken as true and be given collateral estoppel effect, without further proof, in any proceeding based on the entry of the Order or in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the Bureau relating to this Order, including in a proceeding to enforce its rights to any payment or monetary judgment under this Order, such as a non-dischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

37. The facts alleged in the Second Amended Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Bureau under Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and for such purposes this Order will have collateral estoppel effect against each Defendant, even in such Defendant's capacity as debtor-in-possession.

38. Defendants acknowledge that their Taxpayer Identification Numbers, which Defendants previously submitted to the Bureau, may be used for collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701.

B. Compliance Report and Order Duration

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

39. Within 30 days of completing all actions required by the Redress Plan, Defendants must submit to the Bureau an accurate written compliance report ("Compliance Report") that has been approved by the Board, the accuracy of which is sworn to under penalty of perjury, and which, at a minimum, details the steps Defendants have taken to implement the requirements of this Order, including:

- i. reporting on the number of Affected Borrowers who received redress;

40. Within seven (7) days of submitting the Compliance Report to the Bureau, MoneyLion must file a status report with the Court, informing the Court that it has completed redress pursuant to the Order's requirements.

41. This Order shall terminate (the "Termination Date") 90 days from the date Defendants file with the Court the status report required under paragraph 40. During the 90-day period, the Parties will endeavor in good faith to resolve any outstanding issues relating to compliance with the Order.

42. Unless otherwise specified, the requirements in this Order apply only between the Effective Date and the Termination Date.

V. Release

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

43. The Bureau releases and discharges Defendants from all potential liability for law violations that the Bureau has or might have asserted based on the practices described in its Second Amended Complaint, to the extent such practices occurred before the Effective Date and the Bureau knows about them as of the Effective Date, and agrees that this Order is "a final consent decree . . . entitled to res judicata effect." Amalgamated
